

“ Sam’s story is a reminder to students that life is fragile. The SAM Spady Foundation delivered a powerful message to the student audience on how they can be a positive influence and help their closest friends overcome a potentially deadly behavior. The presentation along with the powerful documentary engaged students from the moment the presentation started to when it ended. Sam’s tragic death is a wake-up call that binge drinking is not a part of being a normal college student. ”

- Name withheld
Student, Florida State University
Tallahassee, Florida